Parental Responsibility

Parents

All parents have powers and responsibilities in relation to their children, which can only be changed by a court order. The Children's Services Regulations 2009 refer to these powers and responsibilities as "parental responsibility". It is not affected by the relationship between the parents, such as whether they have lived together or are married. A court order such as under the Family Law Act may take away the authority of a parent to do something or may give it to another person.

Guardians

A guardian of a child has lawful authority. A legal guardian is given lawful authority by a court order. The definition of "guardian" under the Children's Services Act 1996 also covers situations where a child does not live with his or her parents and there are no court orders. In these cases, the guardian is the person the child lives with who has day-to-day care and control of the child.

Confidentiality of enrolment records

The proprietor of the children's service must ensure that information in the child's enrolment record is not divulged to another person unless necessary for the care or education of the child, to manage medical treatment of the child, where expressly authorised by the parent or prescribed in the Children Services Regulations 2009 (regulation 35(1) (d-e))
